

VLP Celebrates its FIRST 5 Years with a Five on Five Webinar:
5 Speakers | 5 Industries | The Next 5 Years

Wednesday, May 1, 2013
9am – 10:15am (PDT) / 12pm – 1:15pm (EDT)

Please join VLP as it celebrates its 5th Anniversary with a unique webinar featuring industry-leading executives speaking about their visions of the future.

Our distinguished speakers have diverse backgrounds, demographics, and expertise, and will speak about the changes they expect to see in their industries over the next five years.

Speakers

Benjamin Levy Executive Vice President & General Counsel, RailWorks Corporation (Transportation)

Ben joined RailWorks in 2011 with an accomplished record of legal and management experience in transportation, business and finance. As General Counsel, Ben is responsible for all legal matters for RailWorks Corporation and its subsidiaries. Before joining RailWorks, he served as Deputy General Counsel for Maersk Inc., a U.S. subsidiary of A.P. Moller-Maersk A/S, a conglomerate whose activities include a variety of transportation-related businesses, and was affiliated with Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP.

David Lieb Co-founder and CEO at Bump Technologies, Inc. (Technology)

David is CEO and Co-founder of Bump Technologies. In 2009, the company launched the Bump app for iPhone (and shortly thereafter, Android), which lets users physically bump mobile phones together to exchange contact information, photos and more. Bump is one of the most-downloaded apps of all time, with more than 125M downloads. Previously, David served as a technologist and algorithm designer at Texas Instruments, where he helped develop digital display devices for projectors and large-screen televisions. Prior to TI, David taught robotic vehicles to see, learn, and drive themselves while a research assistant in the Stanford Artificial Intelligence Lab.

Faraz Naqvi, M.D., Partner, QM Ventures, LLC (Medical)

Faraz is currently a practicing physician, healthcare investor and medical entrepreneur. He received his medical degree from Harvard Medical School followed by a Masters in economics from Cambridge University as a Marshall Scholar. He also holds a Masters in molecular biology from M.I.T. Following schooling, he trained as a radiologist at U.C.S.F. and then began a career in the medical business world first as a consultant with McKinsey & Co., then as a biotech/pharmaceutical analyst at Montgomery Securities/BofA. Following this, Faraz was the head of healthcare investing for Allianz/Dresdner RCM Capital, and then as portfolio manager for the $2 billion Pequot Healthcare Fund. He then started his own business, Avicenna Capital, in affiliation with Brevan Howard in London. He is currently a partner of QM Ventures, the venture arm of QuantMetrics. Faraz is also starting two new healthcare business: Remote Health Access, a telemedicine business, and Juniper International, a chain of long-term care facilities in Asia.

Admiral William Owens Chairman of Centurylink and Flow Mobile (Telecommunications)
Bill is the Chairman of AEA Investors Asia, Hong Kong, Vice Chairman of the NYSE for Asia, Executive Chairman of Prometheus, Beijing. He serves on the Polycom, Wipro and Viasystems Group boards, and is currently the Chairman of CenturyLink Telecom. Bill is the non-executive chairman of the private companies, Yangtze, Intelius, and FlowMobile. He served on the Board of Directors of over 20 public companies, Daimler Chrysler AG, BAT, Nortel Networks and Telstra, and founded five technology companies - Lumera, Extend America, Amerilink, Yangtze, and Prometheus. He is a member of the board of Brookings Institution, Rand Corp. Asia, and has served on the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center and Carnegie Boards. Bill is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

From 2004 to 2006, Bill was CEO and Vice Chairman of Nortel Networks taking the helm following the disclosure of accounting issues in April 2004. Prior to Nortel, he was CEO and Chairman of Teledesic LLC, a Bill Gates/Craig McCaw company to bring worldwide broadband through an extensive satellite network and before that, was the President, COO and Vice Chairman of Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC). During his government career, he was Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the second-ranking military officer in the U.S. with responsibility for the reorganization and restructuring of the armed forces in the post-Cold War era. Prior to this position, Bill served in many different military positions including commanding the U.S. Sixth Fleet during Operation Desert Storm in Iraq. During his career, he received several awards, including being recognized as one of The 50 Most Powerful People in Networking by Network World and awarded by NACD as one of the 100 Best Board Member in the U.S.

Matthew Trotter, Director, Business Development, Bay Area Technology Practice at Silicon Valley Bank (Banking)
Matt currently focuses on providing commercial banking services and debt solutions to high growth technology companies in the Bay Area. He has worked with a wide range of companies from early stage start-ups to large public companies and have experience in structuring an array of debt products including venture debt, mezzanine financing, lines of credit and acquisition term loans.

This is a complimentary event and we hope you will join us. Please register for the webinar by clicking on the event website VLPRegistration. After registering, you will receive confirmation along with detailed instructions to access the webinar.

This invitation is an advertisement for a sponsored event; it is not intended to provide specific legal advice or to establish an attorney-client relationship. VLP Law Group LLP – www.VLPLawGroup.com