

Aubrey Refuerzo

Attorney

 San Francisco Bay Area

 ARefuerzo@VLPLawGroup.com

Inspired by the passion, energy and creativity of founders, Aubrey enjoys advising companies throughout their lifecycle, from first-time founders to established companies. She also enjoys partnering with and guiding the venture capital firms and private equity funds similarly inspired by the emerging companies community.

Aubrey has counseled hundreds of companies at all stages and sizes, from throughout the United States as well as Europe and Africa. She advises companies in various industries on a range of corporate matters including in corporate formation and governance, debt and equity financings, contract review and negotiation, mergers and acquisitions, and other transactional matters.

Aubrey is also especially interested in furthering women entrepreneurs and investors in the technology industry, as well as working with local animal organizations.

Aubrey lives in Menlo Park, California with her husband, two daughters and adopted dogs.

Practice Areas

-  Emerging Growth Companies & Venture Capital
-  Securities & Capital Raising
-  Corporate

Admissions

-  State Bar of California

Education

→ J.D., University of Chicago Law School, 2010

→ B.A., Northwestern University, 2005