

Francesca Hann

Legal Specialist

 Seattle, Washington

 (360) 525-1160

 fhann@vlplawgroup.com

Francesca Hann is a Legal Specialist in the firm's Corporate Group. She is experienced in corporate secretarial and corporate governance matters for both domestic and international companies as well as SEC reporting, stock plan administration and mergers and acquisitions. Francesca's prior experience includes corporate and securities paralegal and stock plan administrator positions with both public and private companies. Her most recent position was with Ribbon Communications Inc. Prior to that, she was a paralegal in the securities practice group at the international law firm Jones Day.

Francesca received a bachelor's degree in History from Western Washington University, an Advanced Paralegal Certificate from Edmonds Community College, and completed Santa Clara University's Certified Equity Professional program.

Practice Areas

-  Corporate
-  Securities & Capital Raising