

Melissa Krasnow Authors Bloomberg Law Resource – “Practical Guidance Overview: State Laws Requiring Data Security Practices”

VLP Partner Melissa Krasnow wrote “Practical Guidance Overview: State Laws Requiring Data Security Practices” for Privacy and Security Law Report, published by Bloomberg Law.

The resource describes the state data security laws that require a business to include data security provisions regarding personal information in vendor agreements. Ms. Krasnow provides a summary of these contract requirements, as well as the types of personal information covered by 11 state laws.

Click here to view the entire article.