Melissa Krasnow was a contributor to the U.S Regulatory Update in Aon Canada's State of the Market - Cyber and Privacy Liability, in January 2018.

The cyber and privacy liability market continued to have ample capacity through the second half of 2017. Both STARR Companies and Berkshire Hathaway Specialty Insurance released new cyber insurance forms in Canada inspired by their related U.S. products. Alongside domestic carriers, London markets have also provided good solutions for clients seeking coverage for more complex or individually tailored risks.
