

VLP Attorneys Timothy Bowers and Lauren Bittle Coauthored an Article Entitled “SEC Amendments to Financial Disclosures Changes Save Money at Expense of Investors” in the Daily Journal

VLP corporate lawyers Timothy R. Bowers and Lauren M. Bittle coauthored an article entitled “SEC Amendments to financial disclosures changes save money at expense of investors” published on June 9, 2020 in the Daily Journal.

The article argues that while the amendments to SEC financial disclosure rules regarding acquisitions and dispositions of significant businesses purport to streamline the burdens on company disclosure requirements, there are significant potential negative consequences of these amendments to investors.

Click here to read the article.