

VLP Partner David Jargiello Appointed by the California Supreme Court to State Bar Board of Trustees

VLP Law Group LLP is pleased to announce the appointment of VLP Partner David Jargiello to the State Bar Board of Trustees by the California Supreme Court.

David's term commences on September 21, 2025 and ends at the conclusion of the State Bar's annual meeting in 2026. In his trustee role, David will help guide the State Bar's exercise of its licensing, regulatory and disciplinary functions in fulfilling its mission of public protection.

David Jargiello is a VLP Partner and its General Counsel.

His practice focuses on the representation of legal technology companies, venture capital funds, and professional services firms in corporate, securities, and M&A transactions, as well as in complex fiduciary duty and risk management matters. David was instrumental in working with VLP's founders in the structure and formation of the firm in 2008.

"This is a role in which David will thrive," said VLP's Managing Partner Tim Bowers. "He's a heavyweight in the legal ethics world, and he will undoubtedly bring a high level of expertise to the California Bar. We're delighted for David."
