VLP Partner Melissa Krasnow Authors International Risk Management Article “California Privacy Rights Act: Background, Application and Definitions”

VLP Partner Melissa Krasnow wrote an article titled “California Privacy Rights Act: Background, Application and Definitions” for International Risk Management, Inc.

This article provides overview information regarding the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA), including when the CPRA applies, certain contract requirements under the CPRA and certain definitions under the CPRA.

Click here to read the entire article.