

VLP Partner Melissa Krasnow Authors International Risk Management Articles “Connecticut Data Privacy Act: Application and Definitions,” “Connecticut Data Privacy Act: Controllers and Processors, Assessments, De-identified Data, and Enforcement,” and “Connecticut Data Privacy Act: Exceptions.”

VLP Partner Melissa Krasnow wrote the articles “Connecticut Data Privacy Act: Application and Definitions,” “Connecticut Data Privacy Act: Controllers and Processors, Assessments, De-identified Data, and Enforcement,” and “Connecticut Data Privacy Act: Exceptions” for International Risk Management, Inc.

The Connecticut Data Privacy Act (CTDPA) will become effective on July 31, 2023.

The first article discusses CTDPA application and definitions, consumer rights, and privacy notice and related requirements.

The second article discusses CTDPA controller and processor responsibilities, controller-processor contracts, data protection assessments, de-identified data, and Connecticut attorney general enforcement.

The third article discusses exceptions to the CTDPA.

Click the links above to read each of the articles in their entirety.