

VLP Partner Melissa Krasnow International Risk Management Article “Changes in Other California Privacy and Data Security Laws”

VLP Partner Melissa Krasnow wrote an article titled “Changes in Other California Privacy and Data Security Laws” for International Risk Management, Inc.

This article provides a brief overview of other California privacy and data security laws, including amendments, that became effective on January 1, 2020, and relate to the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, as amended, which also became effective on January 1, 2020: the amendment to the California data security procedures law and the California breach notification law, and the California data broker law.

Click here to read the entire article on the IRMI website.