

VLP's Cathryn Chinn Featured in “Virtual is the New Law Firm Reality”

Cathryn Chinn, who recently retired as VLP's CEO, participated in a roundtable organized by the Law Practice Division of the American Bar Association. Featured in the May/June issue of Law Practice's magazine, the article focuses on the experiences of five managing leaders of virtual law firms. Topics include managing workflow, creating culture, marketing to clients and advice for starting a virtual law firm.

Click here to read the article on the American Bar Association website. Questions can be directed to VLP's Interim CEO and Founding Partner, David Goldenberg.